TRIED & TESTED

Canapi Grillo 2011

Ah, Grillo. Where would we be without it? Most places in the world other than Sicily, quite frankly. This is a good, honest example of a modest variety that sometimes has a great deal to be modest about. There's a fresh, salty tang on the nose and a good squelch of fruit on the palate and finish. Award winner? Probably not. Crowd pleaser? Definitely.
